Rules relating to the preparation of estimates and plans for panchayat works.

Fort St. George, January 11, 1940
(G.O. No. 152, L.A.).

No. 126.

In exercise of the powers conferred by clause (h) of sub-section (2) of section 199 of the Madras Local Boards Act, 1920 (Madras Act XIV of 1920), His Excellency the Governor of Madras is hereby pleased to make the following rules relating to the preparation of estimates and plans for panchayat works.—

RULES.

In all cases where a panchayat requires the District Board Engineering Staff to prepare an estimate for any work to be executed by the panchayat, it shall submit an application in such form as the Provincial Government may from time to time direct—

(a) if the work is to be executed by the panchayat out of its own funds, to the president of the district board; and

(b) if the work is to be executed wholly or partly with moneys granted from Provincial funds, to the authority sanctioning the grant.

2 Before submitting an application under rule 1, the panchayat shall deposit an initial fee of five rupees in respect of each estimate required to be prepared, in the nearest sub-treasury to the credit of the district board or remit such fee by postal money order to the president of the district board, and the application shall be accompanied by the treasury chalan or the money order receipt, as the case may be, for such fee.

3 If, for any reason, the authority to whom the application is submitted under rule 1 considers the work to be objectionable, it shall record the reason and return the application to the panchayat, in which case the initial deposit made under rule 2 shall be refunded to the panchayat by the district board. If such authority finds the application to be in order and considers the work to be unobjectionable, it shall forward the application to the District Board Engineer for the preparation of the necessary estimate.

4. On receipt of the application the District Board Engineer shall—

(a) without delay, visit the village himself or cause it to be visited by the assistant engineer or overseer concerned;

(b) estimate the approximate cost of the work required; and

(c) intimate such cost to the president of the panchayat in writing, and ask for his instructions as to whether the panchayat is able and willing to finance the scheme and whether the preparation of detailed estimates and plans may be taken up.

5 If the panchayat is able and willing to finance the scheme and agrees to the preparation of detailed estimates and plans, the District Board Engineer shall require the president of the panchayat, in writing, to deposit to the credit of the district board in the manner laid down in rule 2 fifty per cent of the fee leviable under rule 10 inclusive of the initial fee of five rupees paid under rule 2 and forward the treasury chalan or the money order receipt, as the case may be, to his office. If the panchayat complies with the requisition, the detailed estimates and plans shall be prepared without delay.

6. If the panchayat does not comply with the requisition as aforesaid within forty-five days from the date of such direction, the initial deposit of five rupees made by the panchayat under rule 2 shall be forfeited to the district board and credited to its funds. The fact of such forfeiture shall be communicated by the District Board Engineer to the president of the panchayat and to the authority calling for the estimate.

7. In cases falling under rule 5, after the detailed estimates and plans have been prepared, the District Board Engineer shall require the president of the panchayat, in writing, to deposit to the credit of the district board in the manner laid down in rule 2 the fee payable under rule 10, after adjusting the initial fee of five rupees paid under rule 2 and the further fee paid under rule 5 and forward the treasury chalan or the money order receipt to his office.

8. On receipt of such chalan or receipt the detailed estimates and plans shall be delivered in triplicate to any person authorised by the president of the panchayat to receive them or be sent to such president by registered post. A fourth copy shall be retained by the District Board Engineer.

9 If the fee referred to in rule 7 be not paid within forty-five days from the date of requisition under that rule, the initial deposit made by the panchayat under rule 2 and the further deposit made by it under rule 5 shall be forfeited to the district board and credited to its funds. The fact of such forfeiture shall be communicated by the District Board Engineer to the president of the panchayat and the authority calling for the estimate.

10 Fees shall be levied for the preparation of estimates and plans on the following scale, subject in all cases to a minimum of Rs. 5:—

Nature of work. (1)	Scale of fees. (2)
(a) Water-supply works, such as the deepening of tanks and wells and the widening and strengthening of the bunds of tanks	One-half per cent of the estimated cost, subject to a maximum of Rs. 10.
(b) Other water supply works such as the construction of inlets and outlets and of flights of steps and bathing places for tanks and the construction of wells and other similar works.	One per cent of the estimated cost, subject to a maximum of Rs. 10
(c) Road works—Formation of new roads	Two and a half per cent of the estimated cost.
(d) Other road works.	One and a half per cent of the estimated cost, subject to a maximum of Rs. 30.
(e) Bridges and culverts—Construction and repairs	Two and a half per cent of the estimated cost, subject to a maximum of Rs. 50.
(f) All other works not falling under items (a) to (e).	One and a half per cent of the estimated cost, subject to a maximum of Rs. 10
(g) Revision of any estimate falling under items (a) to (f).	Same fee as prescribed in the foregoing items for an original estimate subject to Explanation II below.

Explanation I—If any question arises as to whether any item of work falls under one or another of the categories specified in column (1) of the above table, it shall be referred to the District Board engineer and his decision shall be final.

Explanation II—In cases where revised estimates have to be prepared for any of the works referred to in items (a) to (f), no fee shall be charged in cases where the revision is rendered necessary by any defect in the original estimates prepared by the district board engineering staff or where only the rates have to be revised according to the current schedule of rates. The district board engineer shall decide in each case whether the levy of a fresh fee is justified or not and his decision shall be final.

11. If the work is to be executed with the funds of the panchayat, the time allowed for its execution shall be twelve months from the date of receipt of the final estimates and plans by the panchayat. In the case of estimates which require the sanction of the district board, the twelve months' period shall be reckoned from the date on which the final estimates and plans sanctioned by the district board were received by the panchayat.

12. If the work is to be executed with the aid of a Government grant, the time allowed for its execution shall be twelve months from the date on which the final estimates and plans sanctioned by the authority sanctioning the grant, were received by the panchayat.

13. The fee levied from any panchayat under rule 10 shall be refunded to it if it completes the work in question within the time specified in rule 11 or rule 12. This does not affect the recovery of charges on account of the special staff employed exclusively for panchayat works in any district.

14. The time taken by the District Board Engineering Staff for the preparation of estimates shall not ordinarily exceed six months from the date of receipt of the treasury chalan or the money order receipt referred to in rule 5. If within that period the estimate is not ready for delivery to the president of the panchayat and no satisfactory cause is shown therefor, the Government or any authority to whom the powers under this rule may be delegated by them may, on the application of the president of the panchayat, order the refund of the fee collected from the panchayat. Thereupon the president of the district board shall refund the fee collected in the panchayat.

15. Notwithstanding anything contained in the foregoing rules, a district board may remit, wholly or in part, any fee due to it in respect of any work or works executed by any panchayat or class of panchayats.

Object of the enactment of the Madras Local Boards (Amendment) Act, 1940.

PRESS COMMUNIQUE No. 15.

Fort St. George, February 6, 1940.

No. 71.

Rules have been framed by the Government under the Places of Public Resort Act, 1888 (Madras Act II of 1888), prescribing the fees which may be levied for licences issued under that Act, and the conditions under which such licences should be issued. These rules however will have no application to local board areas in view of section 193 (c) of the Madras Local Boards Act (Madras Act XIV of 1920). That section provides that "notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary in the Places of Public Resort Act, 1888," when the Government extend that Act to any local board area, the fee to be levied on, and the conditions to be inserted in, licences issued under that Act shall be determined by the panchayat concerned. Where there is no panchayat in any area, the power to fix the fees for, and the conditions to be imposed in, licences, devolves on the district board (see the proviso to section 6 (2) of the Local Boards Act).

Under section 193 (c) of the Local Boards Act, certain panchayats have levied exorbitant fees or imposed impossible conditions, putting the parties concerned to loss and hardship. It is considered desirable that there should be uniformity in these matters throughout the Presidency, as between one panchayat and another and also as between panchayats on the one hand and municipalities on the other. As executive instructions would not be effective in bringing about the desired uniformity, it was decided that the Madras Local Boards Act, 1920, should be amended so that the rules issued by the Government under the Places of Public Resort Act, 1888, might be made applicable not only to municipal areas but also to local board areas. This object will be achieved by the deletion of clause (c) of section 198 of the Madras Local Boards Act, 1920. The Madras Local Boards (Amendment) Act, 1940, which is published to-day has been enacted for this purpose.

Acquisition of Land.

Fort St. George, January 26, 1940.

Whereas it appears to the Government of Madras that the land specified below is needed for a public purpose, to wit, for the site of a public well, notice to that effect is hereby given to all whom it may concern in accordance with the provisions of section 4 (1) of the Land Acquisition Act I of 1894, as amended by the Land Acquisition (Amendment) Act XXXVIII of 1923; and the Government of Madras hereby authorize the Sub Collector, Palghat, his staff and workmen to exercise the powers conferred by section 4 (2) of the Act. Under section 3 (c) of the same Act, the Government of Madras appoint the Sub-Collector, Palghat, to perform the functions of a Collector under section 5-A of the Act,

Madras, 23rd January 1940.

UNIVERSITY OF MADRAS.

Instructions to candidates appearing for the examinations to be held in 1940.

Candidates for University Examinations are required to observe the following instructions very carefully :—

1. Strict silence should be maintained in the examination room.

2. Candidates should take their places in the examination hall at least five minutes before the time fixed for giving out the papers. Candidates presenting themselves more than half an hour after the appointed time will not be admitted to the examination hall. Candidates who are undoubtedly suffering from infectious diseases of any kind will not be admitted.

Candidates should bring with them to the examination hall, each day of the examination, their hall tickets for inspection by the Chief Superintendent.

3. Candidates are prohibited from writing upon their hall tickets at qualifying papers. Candidates are also prohibited from writing their names on any part of their answer-books, but their register numbers should be written very distinctly on the outer cover of each. Failure to write their register numbers may involve the rejection of answer papers.

4. Candidates are not allowed to exceed the time assigned to each paper.

5. No candidate will be allowed to leave the examination room till the expiry of at least half an hour after a question paper has been given out; and no candidate who leaves the room during the period allotted for a paper will be allowed to return within that period.

6. Candidates are forbidden to ask questions of any kind during the examination. They are further forbidden to communicate with the examiners; should they do so their answers will not be valued, and their conduct will be reported to the Syndicate for disciplinary action.

Candidates are strictly prohibited from smoking in the examination room.

7. CANDIDATES ARE NOT ALLOWED THE USE OF BOOKS OF ANY KIND (EXCEPT AS PROVIDED IN RULE 8). THEY ARE ALSO PROHIBITED FROM INTRODUCING INTO THE EXAMINATION ROOM ANY BOOK OR PORTION OF A BOOK, SLATE, MANUSCRIPT OR PAPER OF ANY DESCRIPTION, FROM COMMUNICATING WITH OR COPYING FROM EACH OTHER, AND FROM COMMUNICATING WITH ANY PERSON OUTSIDE THE EXAMINATION ROOM. ANY CANDIDATE DETECTED IN THE VIOLATION OF THESE RULES WILL BE SENT OUT OF THE ROOM FORTHWITH, AND HIS CONDUCT WILL BE REPORTED TO THE REGISTRAR.

The use of stencils at University examinations is not permitted except to students answering papers in Mathematics. The use of mathematical instruments whilst answering papers in Mathematics and in Physical Science will be allowed. Such instruments will not be supplied by the University.

8. Clarke's Mathematical and Physical Tables will be supplied to candidates offering Mathematics, Physics, Chemistry, Geography, Electrical Engineering and Mechanical Engineering at the Intermediate Examination in B.A., B.Sc., B.A. (Honours), B.Sc. (Honours), M.A., M.Sc., B.Sc. (Ag.), B.Sc. (Pharmacy) and B.V.Sc. Degree Examinations and Preregistration examination only.

An "earnest" fee of an amount equivalent to the cost of a copy of Mathematical Tables should be deposited with the Chief Superintendent by each student requiring the use of such books, the amount to be refunded on the book being returned. The cost price of each book is 10 annas.

9. Candidates for examination in science subjects are required to submit their laboratory note-books both at the term end in the subsidiary subjects to the Examiner concerned on the first day of the practical examination and to get them back at the close of the examination. This instruction applies only to candidates appearing from colleges.

10. Candidates are required to provide themselves with their own pens. Candidates may bring into the examination hall their own ink-bottles. They must, however, use only black ink while answering their question papers.

11. Particular attention is invited to the instructions regarding rough working and loose sheets of paper printed on the answer books. All rough working must be shown on the left hand page of the answer-books themselves. No separate books for rough working will be supplied to candidates. Paper must not be detached from the answer-books of candidates. If the ordinary answer-books are found insufficient, additional books will be supplied and these should be securely fastened to the answer-books.

12. AS SOON AS CANDIDATES HAVE FINISHED WRITING THEIR ANSWERS, AND WISH TO GIVE UP THEIR ANSWER-BOOKS, OR AT THE END OF THE PERIOD PRESCRIBED FOR EACH PARTICULAR PART OF THE EXAMINATION, EACH CANDIDATE SHOULD STAND UP IN HIS PLACE AND REMAIN STANDING UNTIL ONE OF THE SUPERINTENDENTS HAS COME UP TO HIM AND HAS RECEIVED HIS ANSWER-BOOK FROM HIM.

Where the halls are suitable the following alternative procedure may be adopted: At the end of the period prescribed for each particular paper the candidates should at once fold their answer books, leave them in evidence at their places, vacate their seats, retire to the passages between the tables and move out of the hall in order and in silence, the Superintendents being meanwhile stationed in position from which they may command a good view of the blocks entrusted to their care; when all the candidates have moved out the Superintendents will collect the answer books.

13. COMMUNICATIONS TO THE REGISTRAR FROM CANDIDATES REQUESTING INFORMATION RELATING TO THE RESULTS OF EXAMINATIONS WILL NOT RECEIVE ATTENTION UNTIL AFTER THE PUBLICATION OF THE RESULTS IN THE Fort St. George Gazette.

15. No college student will be allowed to select a centre for his examination other than that in which the College he studies is situated except for satisfactory reasons and on the recommendation of the Principal of his College.

16. *Candidates appearing at centres where they are not known must be prepared to satisfy the Chief Superintendents of such centres as to their identity. MADRAS UNIVERSITY STUDENTS' INFORMATION BUREAU.

President: The Vice-Chancellor of the University of Madras (ex officio).

Vice-President: The Director of Public Instruction, Madras (ex officio).

Secretary: Captain M. Abdul Hamid, M.A., M.R.C.P., R.A. (Oxon.), M.R.S., Principal, Government Mohammadan College, Madras.

The main functions of the Bureau are—

(1) To furnish information and advice to Indian students going to England or other countries abroad for general and technological studies.

(2) To circulate to colleges and other educational institutions in India information of a helpful character collected by the Central Bureau in London concerning the educational, financial and social facilities obtaining in educational centres outside India.

(3) To communicate with the Central Bureau on behalf of students before they start or on behalf of their parents when they are abroad.

(4) To advise prospective candidates for the Indian Civil Service and other competitive examinations held in Delhi.

Students of the Madras Presidency—and of the Indian States whose colleges are affiliated to the Madras University—who contemplate going to England or other countries for further study, and relatives and friends of those who have already gone, are invited to correspond with the Secretary, Room No. 6, New University Buildings, Chepauk, Madras, from whom all necessary information can be obtained.

As all private applications from students sent direct to the Educational Advisor in London or to Educational authorities in Great Britain are forwarded to the Secretary of the Madras University Students' Information Bureau for his enquiry and recommendation, much inconvenience and delay will be saved for students by their getting into touch with the Secretary at Madras.

The Bureau maintains a small library consisting of the prospectuses, syllabuses and calendars of educational institutions and Universities in Great Britain, America and other countries, and students and other enquirers will be allowed the use of the library on all week days—excepting holidays—between 11 a.m. and 4 p.m.

Candidates seeking advice from the Secretary of the University Students' Information Bureau, may interview him by previous appointment between 4 and 5 p.m. on working days in the New University Buildings, Chepauk, and at other times at the Government Muhammadan College, Mount Road, Madras.

M. ABDUL HAMID,
Secretary.

Rules for the levy of fees on sales and for the issue of licences for the compounding, etc., of liquors and spirits.

No. 2.

The following notification is issued in supersession of Notification No. 2, dated 27th January 1939, published in the Fort St. George Gazette, Part II, dated 31st January 1939.

In exercise of the powers conferred on him under section 4 (g) of the Madras Abkari Act, 1886, the Commissioner of Excise and Separate Revenue hereby prescribes under sections 10, 24 and 29 (2) (l) of the Act, the following rules for the levy of fees on the volume of sales, etc., and for the issue of licences for the compounding, blending, bottling and sale of potable foreign liquors, Indian-made 'foreign' spirits, Indian-made rectified spirits, coconut toddy arrack and beer brewed in India from and after the 1st April 1940 within the limits of the Province of Madras :—

1. The term 'foreign liquor' in these rules includes all wines, spirits and beer imported into the Province of Madras by sea or land, imported plain rectified spirits on which the tariff rate of duty has been paid and beer brewed in India duly excised at the tariff rate but excludes Indian-made 'foreign' spirits, coconut toddy arrack, beer brewed in India and Indian-made plain rectified spirits on which duty at the tariff rate has not been paid, beer imported in a condensed form and afterwards converted into potable beer, denatured spirits and ordinary arrack.

"Indian-made 'foreign' spirits" spirit manufactured and compounded in British India and made in colour and flavour to resemble gin, brandy, whisky or rum imported from foreign countries and includes 'milk punch' and other liqueurs into the composition of which only such spirit enters. It is excised at Rs. 21-14-0 per proof gallon; its sale is permitted in all foreign liquor shops except those licensed for the exclusive sale of beer, medicated wines and rectified spirits.

The duty on Indian-made rectified spirits is Rs. 21-14-0 per proof gallon.

'Coconut toddy arrack' is spirit manufactured from toddy at the Chowghat distillery in Malabar and excised at Rs. 17-8-0 per proof gallon; its sale is permitted in all foreign liquor shops except those licensed for the exclusive sale of beer, medicated wines and rectified spirits. The maximum limit of private possession is two Imperial gallons.

'Indian beer' is beer brewed in India, (a) which contains at least two bushels of malt and two pounds of hops per hogshead and in the manufacture of which jaggery or crude-cane sugar is employed and (b) which is brewed at a higher original gravity of 1,053 degrees on a standard saccharometer.

Note.—(1) The minimum strengths at which imported and Indian-made 'foreign' spirits can be sold are 35° U.P. for gin, 30° U.P. for Coconte arrack and cocoanut toddy arrack and such other spirits as may be prescribed by the Commissioner of Excise and Separate Revenue, from time to time and 25° U.P. for all other kinds of spirits including Indian arrack, except denatured spirits.

(2) Holders of foreign liquor licences should not dispose of any spirit imported by them and cleared from the Customs House on payment of proper excise duty before ascertaining themselves that it is not below the minimum saleable strength. If on test at the Customs Laboratory it is found that any such spirit is below the minimum saleable strength and has been sold the excise rules will be rigidly enforced against such licensees.

(3) Rectified spirits' includes 'absolute alcohol.'

2. (1) Gallonage fees shall be levied at the following rates on the volume of sales of liquor under such licences and in such manner as may be prescribed by the Commissioner of Excise and Separate Revenue from time to time :—

5. Transport.—(1) No Indian-made 'foreign' spirits, coconut toddy arrack or beer brewed in India shall be issued from any distillery, warehouse or brewery in this Province otherwise than under a permit to be issued free of fee when the issue is made to a licence-holder and on payment of the prescribed gallonage fees when the issue is made to some person other than a licence-holder. Permits will be granted by the officers in charge of the Distilleries or Warehouses or by the Brewery Manager as the case may be.

Madras, 27th January 1940

Statistics—Crop—Sugarcane—1939—Third or Final Report.

The average of the areas under sugarcane in the Madras Province during the five years ending 1937-38 has represented 2·8 per cent of the total area under sugarcane in India.

2. The area planted with sugarcane up to 28th December 1939 is estimated at 122,010 acres. When compared with the corresponding estimate of 96,830 acres for the previous year and the actual area of 98,202 acres according to the Season and Crop Report, the present estimate reveals an increase of 26·2 per cent and 24·3 per cent respectively. The estimate of the previous year fell short of the actual area by 1·4 per cent.

3. The present estimate of area exceeds the second forecast by 9,270 acres. The excess occurs mainly in Vizagapatam, Kistna, Salem, Coimbatore and Trichinopoly.

4. The increase in area in comparison with the actual area of 1938 as per Season and Crop Report occurs in all districts outside Tinnevelly and Malabar and is attributed to favourable prices prevailing for jaggery. The increase is marked in Vizagapatam (+4,160 acres), Bellary (+5,050 acres), South Arcot (+3,760 acres) and the Central districts (+10,450 acres). The area estimated for Bellary, Cuddapah, South Arcot, Coimbatore, Trichinopoly, Tanjore and South Kanara is the highest reported in recent years. The present estimate includes an area of 6,700 acres under ratoon sugarcane in the districts of Vizagapatam (900 acres), East Godavari (3,000 acres), West Godavari (700 acres), Bellary (700 acres), Chingleput (80 acres), South Arcot (400 acres), Chittoor (1,000 acres), Coimbatore (100 acres), Trichinopoly (500 acres), Tanjore (200 acres) and Malabar (20 acres).

5. The harvest has just commenced and yields below normal are expected in all districts outside Anantapur, Cuddapah, Nellore, Salem, Madura and Ramnad where the yield is expected to be normal. The seasonal factor for the Province is estimated at 95 per cent of the average as against 97 per cent in the previous year according to the Season and Crop Report. On this basis, the yield is estimated at 358,140 tons of jaggery as against 261,230 tons estimated in January 1939, an increase of 37·2 per cent and as against 273,560 tons, estimated in the Season and Crop Report of the previous year, the increase in this case amounting to 30·8 per cent.

6. Charge of tax.

4. Subject to the provisions of this Act, there shall, in respect of any business to which this Act applies, be charged, levied and paid on the amount by which the profits during any chargeable accounting period exceed the standard profits a tax (in this Act referred to as "excess profits tax") equal to fifty per cent of that excess.

Provided that any profits which are, under the provisions of sub-section (3) of section 4 of the Indian Income-tax Act, 1922, exempt from income-tax, shall be totally exempt from Excess Profits Tax under this Act.

Application of Act.

5. This Act shall apply to every business of which any part of the profits is chargeable to income-tax by virtue of the provisions of sub-clause (i) or sub-clause (ii) of clause (b) of sub-section (1) of section 4 of the Indian Income-tax Act, 1922, or of clause (c) of that sub-section:

Provided that this Act shall not apply to any business the whole of the profits of which accrue or arise without British India where such business is carried on by or on behalf of a person who is resident but not ordinarily resident in British India unless the business is controlled in India;

Provided further that where a part only of the profits of a business carried on by a person who is not resident in British India or not ordinarily so resident accrues or arises in British India or is deemed under the Indian Income-tax Act, 1922, so to accrue or arise, then, except where the business being the business of a person who is resident but not ordinarily resident in British India is controlled in India, this Act shall apply only to such part of the business, and such part shall for all the purposes of this Act be deemed to be a separate business.

Standard profits.

6. (1) For the purposes of this Act, the standard profits of a business in relation to any chargeable accounting period shall, subject to the provisions of sub-sections (3) and (4), be—

(a) where the business was in existence before the 31st day of March, 1936, an amount bearing to the profits of the business during the standard period the same proportion as the chargeable accounting period bears to the standard period, provided that if the average amount of capital employed in the business during such chargeable accounting period is greater or less than the average amount of capital employed during the standard period, such amount shall be increased or decreased, as the case may be, by an amount calculated by applying the statutory percentage to the amount of such increase or decrease,

(b) in any other case, an amount calculated by applying the statutory percentage to the average amount of capital employed in the business during such chargeable accounting period.

(2) For the purposes of this section the standard period shall, at the option of the person carrying on the business, be—

(a) the "previous year" as determined under section 2 of Indian Income-tax Act, 1922, for the purpose of the income-tax assessment for the year ending on the 31st day of March 1937, or the previous year as so determined for the year ending on the 31st day of March 1938,

(b) the "previous year" as so determined for the year ending on the 31st day of March 1937, and that for the year ending on the 31st day of March 1939, or

(c) the "previous year" as so determined for the year ending on the 31st day of March 1939, and that for the year ending on the 31st day of March 1939.

(3) If, within the period specified in the notice issued under sub-section (2) of section 13, the person carrying on the business, being a business to which clause (a) of sub-section (1) applies, makes an application to the Excess Profits Tax Officer in this behalf, the Excess Profits Tax Officer shall refer the application to the Board of Referees, and if the Board is satisfied that during the standard period the profits of the business were less than might then have been reasonably expected, it may direct that the standard profits shall be computed as if the profits during the standard period were such greater amount as it thinks just:

Provided that where the person carrying on the business is a company such amount shall not exceed the amount sufficient to provide dividends for the standard period—

(a) on the paid-up ordinary share capital of the company at the rate of six per cent. per annum;

(b) on any other paid-up share capital of the company, at the fixed rate per annum payable thereon, unless the Board is satisfied that owing to some specific cause peculiar to the business it is just that a greater amount should be allowed.

(4) The standard profits shall be taken to be rupees twenty thousand in any case in which the standard profits computed in accordance with sub-section (1) are less than this sum:

Provided that if the chargeable accounting period is greater or less than one year the sum of rupees twenty thousand shall for the purpose of this sub-section be increased or decreased proportionately.

Relief on account of deficiency of profits.

7. Where a deficiency of profits occurs in any chargeable accounting period in any business, the profits of the business chargeable with excess profits tax shall be deemed to be reduced and relief shall be granted in accordance with the following provisions:—

(a) the aggregate amount of the profits so chargeable for the previous chargeable accounting periods shall be deemed to be reduced by the amount of the deficiency of profits and the amount of excess profits tax payable in respect thereof shall be deemed to be reduced accordingly and the relief necessary to give effect to the reduction shall be given by repayment or otherwise,

(b) where the amount of the deficiency of profits exceeds the aggregate amount of the profits so chargeable for the previous chargeable accounting periods, the balance of the deficiency of profits shall be applied in reducing any profits so chargeable for the next subsequent chargeable accounting period, and if and so far as it exceeds the amount of those profits, any profits so chargeable for the next subsequent chargeable accounting period and so on.

Successions and amalgamations.

8. (1) As from the date of any change in the persons carrying on a business, the business shall, subject to the provisions of this section, be deemed for the purposes of this Act to have been discontinued, and a new business to have been commenced.

(2) Where the change took place before the 1st day of April 1939, and consisted in the death or retirement of a partner, or the taking in of a partner, the persons carrying on the business after the change may, by notice given in writing before the prescribed date to the Excess Profits Tax Officer, elect that, for the purposes of the provisions of this Act relating to the computation of standard profits, the business shall not be deemed to have been discontinued.

(3) A business shall not, for the purposes of the provisions of this Act relating to the computation of standard profits, be deemed to be discontinued by reason of any change occurring on or after the 1st day of April, 1939, in the persons carrying it on, and the standard profits of the business in relation to any chargeable accounting period shall be computed accordingly, and, in particular, in computing the capital employed in the business after the change, no regard shall be had to any consideration given in respect of the transfer of the business or any of the assets thereof on the occasion of the change.

(4) Where, on or after the 1st day of April, 1939, two or more businesses are amalgamated, the resulting business shall be treated for the purposes of the provisions of this Act relating to the computation of standard profits as if—

(a) it had been in existence throughout the period during which there were in existence any of the former businesses;

(b) any profits made or losses incurred or capital employed in any of those former businesses had been made, incurred or employed in the resulting business; and

(c) any assets of any of those former businesses had become assets of the resulting business when they became assets of the former business; and, in particular, in computing the capital employed in the resulting business, no regard shall be had to any consideration given in respect of the transfer of any of those former businesses or any of the assets thereof on the occasion of the amalgamation.

(5) Where, on or after the 1st day of April, 1939, part of a business is transferred as a going concern by the person theretofore carrying it on to another person, the part transferred and the part not transferred shall each be deemed for the purposes of the provisions of this Act relating to the computation of standard profits to be a continuation of the original business, and the said provisions, including the provisions of this section relating to amalgamations, shall apply accordingly, subject to any necessary modifications:

Provided that, for the purposes aforesaid, such apportionments shall be made of the profits made, and losses incurred, and the capital employed, in the original business, and of any assets of the original business as may appear to the Excess Profits Tax Officer, or on appeal in the prescribed time and manner to the Board of Referees, to be just.

(6) Notwithstanding anything in the foregoing provisions of this section, where a business was carried on immediately before the 1st day of April, 1936, and that business, or the main part of that business, was transferred after the said day and before the 1st day of April, 1939, by the person carrying it on to another person, the Excess Profits Tax Officer, if he is satisfied that the business carried on after the transference was not substantially different from the business or part transferred may, on the application of the person carrying on the business after the transfer, treat that person, for the purposes of the provisions of this Act relating to the computation of standard profits, as if he had carried on the transferred business or part of a business as from the date of the commencement of that business, subject, however, to such modifications (including modifications as respects the computation of capital) as he may consider just.

Inter-connected companies.

9. (1) Where any interest, annuity or other annual payment, or any royalty or rent, is paid by one company to another company, and any of those companies is a subsidiary of the other, or both are subsidiaries of a third company, the capital, profits and losses of both companies shall be computed for the purposes of this Act as if—

(a) the interest, annuity, annual payment, royalty or rent were not payable,

(b) any debt in respect of which any such interest is payable did not exist, and

(c) any asset in respect of which any such royalty or rent is payable were the property of the company paying the royalty or the rent.

(4) If the subsidiary company is a subsidiary of the principal company during part only of the chargeable accounting period, the excess or deficiency of profits of the subsidiary company for that part of that period shall be treated as increasing or, as the case may be, decreasing the excess or deficiency of profits of the principal company for the whole period and shall not be deemed to be an excess or deficiency of profits of the subsidiary company.

In this sub-section, the expressions "excess" and "deficiency" mean, in relation to profits, an excess or deficiency in relation to the standard profits of the subsidiary company or, as the case may be, the principal company.

(5) In any case to which sub-section (3) or sub-section (4) of this section applies, such alteration, if any, of the periods which would otherwise be the chargeable accounting periods of the subsidiary company shall be made as the Central Board of Revenue may direct.

Relief in respect of double excess profits taxation.

11. The Central Government may by notification in the official Gazette make provision for the granting of relief in cases where both excess profits tax under this Act and excess profits tax under any law in force in the United Kingdom, in any Indian State, or in any other part of His Majesty's Dominions have been paid upon the profits of any business if it appears to the Central Government that the laws of the United Kingdom or of that Indian State or of that other part of His Majesty's Dominions provide for corresponding relief in respect of excess profits tax charged on profits both in the United Kingdom or in that State or in that part and in British India.

12. (1) The amount of the excess profits tax payable in respect of a business for any chargeable accounting period diminished by any amount allowed by way of relief under the provisions of section 11, shall, in computing for the purposes of income-tax the profits and gains of that business, be allowed to be deducted as an expense incurred in that period.

(2) There shall also be so deducted the amount of any excess profits tax payable under any law in force in the United Kingdom, in any Indian State or in any other part of His Majesty's Dominions on the profits of the business in respect of any chargeable accounting period to the extent that such profits arose in the United Kingdom or the Indian State or the other part of His Majesty's Dominions in question respectively, after diminishing such amount by any amount which has been allowed by way of relief by repayment, set off or otherwise under any law in the country where the tax is payable providing for the granting of relief in that country where excess profits tax has also been charged in British India:

altered under sub-section (1) or sub-section (2) of this section shall not be altered but the amount repayable shall be taken into account in computing the profits and gains of the business for the purposes of income-tax as if it were a profit of the business accruing in the chargeable accounting period in which the deficiency of profits occurs.

(1) The Excess Profits Tax Officer may, for the purposes of this Act, require any person whom he believes to be engaged in any business to which this Act applies, or to have been so engaged during any chargeable accounting period, or to be otherwise liable to pay excess profits tax, to furnish within such period, not being less than thirty days, as may be specified in the notice, a return in the prescribed form and verified in the prescribed manner setting forth (along with such other particulars as may be provided for in the notice) with respect to any chargeable accounting period specified in the notice the profits of the business and the standard profits of the business as computed in accordance with the provisions of section 6 or the amount of deficiency available for relief under section 7:

(1) The Excess Profits Tax Officer shall, by an order in writing after considering such evidence, if any, as he has required under section 13, assess to the best of his judgment the profits liable to excess profits tax and the amount of excess profits tax payable on the basis of such assessment, or if there is a deficiency of profits, the amount of that deficiency and the amount of excess profits tax, if any, repayable.

(2) Excess profits tax payable in respect of any chargeable accounting period shall be payable by the person carrying on the business in that period.

(3) Where two or more persons were carrying on the business jointly in the chargeable accounting period the assessment shall be made upon them jointly and, in the case of a partnership, may be made in the partnership name.

Power of Central Board of Revenue to make rules in special cases.

25. If the Central Board of Revenue is satisfied in the case of any business which was in existence before the 31st day of March 1940, that special circumstances exist which render it inequitable that the standard profits of the business in relation to any chargeable accounting period should be computed in accordance with the provisions of clause (a) of sub-section (1) of section 8, and no relief has been granted under the provisions of sub-section (3) of that section, the Central Board of Revenue may direct that the standard profits of the business shall be computed as if the profits during the standard period were such greater amount as the Central Board of Revenue thinks just.

Rules for the computation of profits for purposes of Excess Profits Tax.

1. The profits of a business during the standard period, or during any chargeable accounting period, shall be separately computed, and shall, subject to the provisions of this Schedule, be computed on the principles on which the profits of a business are computed for the purposes of income-tax under section 10 of the Indian Income-tax Act, 1922, or would be so computed if income-tax were chargeable on those profits:

Provided that where the profits during any standard period have already been determined for the purpose of an assessment under the Indian Income-tax Act, 1922, such profits as so determined shall, subject to the adjustments required by this Schedule, be taken as the profits during that period for the purpose of excess profits tax.

Provided further that where a standard period or chargeable accounting period is not an accounting period, the profits or losses of the business during any accounting period wholly or partly included within the standard period or chargeable accounting period shall be so computed as aforesaid, and such division and apportionment in specific periods of those profits or losses and such aggregation of those profits or losses, or any apportioned part thereof shall be made as appears necessary to arrive at the profit during the standard period or chargeable accounting period; and any such apportionment shall be made in proportion to the number of months or fractions of a month in the respective periods unless the Excess Profits Tax Officer, having regard to any special circumstances, otherwise directs.

No allowance shall be made for any loss other than a loss sustained in a business to which this Act applies, or for any loss other than a loss made in the accounting period and in particular, the principle of allowing any loss sustained in any period to be carried forward and set off against the profits of any other period, or of setting the allowance for depreciation for any one period to the allowance for depreciation for any subsequent period and deeming it to be part of the allowance for such subsequent period shall not be followed.

3. (1) Income received from investments shall be included in the profits in the cases and at the rates provided in sub-rules (2) and (3) of this rule and not otherwise.

(3) In the case of a business which consists wholly or partly in the letting out of property on hire, the income from the property shall be included in the profits of the business whether or not it has been charged to income-tax under section 9 of the Indian Income-tax Act, 1922, or under any other section of that Act.

(4) Where the person carrying on a business in the beneficial course of any investments, the income from which is by virtue of the provisions of this rule had to be taken into account in computing the profits of the business, and a deduction would, apart from the provisions of this rule fall to be made in respect of interest on borrowed money, the deduction (if any) to be made in respect of that interest shall be computed as if the principal of the borrowed money were reduced by the value of those investments:

Provided that where the person carrying on the business is not a company, no such reduction shall be deemed to be made in the principal of any borrowed money in respect of any investments unless the investments are mortgaged, charged or pledged as security for the repayment of that money and interest thereon.

4. No deduction shall be made on account of liability to pay, or payment of, income-tax, super-tax, or excess profits tax.

5. (1) In the case of a business carried on in any accounting period which overstrides or includes a chargeable accounting period, by a company the directors whereof have a controlling interest therein—

(a) if the standard profits of the company are computed by reference to the profits during a standard period, no deduction shall be allowed in respect of directors' remuneration in excess of the amount paid for directors' remuneration in respect of the standard period or, if the standard period is longer or shorter than the accounting period, in excess of a sum which bears to the sum so paid for directors' remuneration in respect of the standard period the same proportion as the length of the accounting period bears to that of the standard period;

(b) if the standard profits are not computed by reference to the profits during a standard period, no deduction shall be allowed in respect of directors' remuneration.

(2) In this rule the expression "directors' remuneration" does not include the remuneration of any director who is required to devote substantially the whole of his time to the service of the company in a managerial or technical capacity and to not the beneficial owner of, or able, either directly or through the medium of other companies or by any other indirect means, to control, more than five per cent of the ordinary share capital of the company.

6. Where the performance of a contract extends beyond the accounting period, there shall (unless the Excess Profits Tax Officer, owing to any special circumstances, otherwise directs) be attributed to the accounting period such proportion of the entire profits or loss which has resulted, or which it is estimated will result, from the complete performance of the contract as is properly attributable to the account ing period, having regard to the extent to which the contract is performed therein.

SCHEDULE II.

(See section 3 (2).)

(b) in the case of excess profits tax, on the first day after the end of the chargeable accounting period in respect of which the tax is assessable notwithstanding that the excess profits tax may not have been assessed until after that date.

(a) to have accrued at an even rate throughout the period, and

(b) to have resulted as they accrued, in a corresponding increase or decrease, as the case may be in the capital employed in the business.

6. Where, in accordance with the second proviso of section 8 of this Act, this Act is applicable to part only of a business, the capital employed in that part shall be computed separately from any other capital of the person carrying on the business, and all references to capital employed in a business shall be construed as references to capital employed in that part of the business only.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

The outbreak of war, while it has necessitated greatly increased expenditure by the Government on defence and other services, has simultaneously created opportunities for the earning by companies and persons engaged in business of abnormally large profits. The object of this Bill is to secure for the Government a considerable portion of the additional business profits which accrue as a result of the conditions prevailing during the war.

2. The Bill seeks to impose a tax at 50 per cent of the excess of the profits made in any accounting period after the 1st day of April 1939, over what in the Bill is called "standard profits." The standard profits are, in respect of businesses in existence prior to the 1st day of April 1936, the average of various accounting periods from 1935 to 1938, subject to certain adjustments. The taxpayer is given the option of choosing between several periods or averages, and provision is made for a reference to a Board of Referees for special relief, if the profits during each of the periods which could otherwise have been chosen are abnormally low. The standard profits for businesses started after the 1st day of April 1936, are computed by reference to a percentage of the capital employed in the business.

3. The Bill contains necessary provisions for computing profits and capital, and these provisions follow closely those of the excess profits tax imposed in the United Kingdom by the Finance (No. 2) Act of 1939.

4. It is intended that the Bill should come into force on a date to be determined by the Central Government, and should remain in force until repealed. In this respect the imposition of this tax differs from that of income-tax which is imposed afresh each year by the annual Finance Act.

5. The Bill provides for the Act to be administered by officers of the Income-tax Departments under the Central Board of Revenue, and contains provisions for assessment, collection, appeal, reference to the High Court on a point of law, penalties for false statements, etc., which closely correspond to those in the Indian Income-tax Act, 1922.
